In its 15th year, the beloved summer event continues to attract tens of thousands of visitors from across the globe and promises record-breaking attendance.

The Host Sponsor, Science of Spirituality, brings us the festival, in partnership with the Institute of Meditation and Inner Harmony.

Institute for Meditation and Inner Harmony

We are Proud to announce sponsorship for the first time from
Chicagoland Auto Group (VinFast & Polestar)

Chicagoland Auto Group is a locally owned and operated dealership, built on a legacy of trust and innovation, the group is committed to sustainability, cutting-edge technology, and strong community ties. It includes Polestar Lisle, offering high-performance electric vehicles, and VinFast Lisle, representing one of the fastest-growing global EV brands.

One of our celebrated sponsors is Innergy, a holistic wellness app that tunes up our mental and physical health.

We are huge fans of Nature's Path Organic Foods, back for its 15th year! This family-owned company recognized for its sustainability practices and emphasis on charitable and eco-friendly initiatives— is one the largest organic cereal foods company in North America.

MANNA
KITCHEN

Manna Kitchen—the first plant-based restaurant in the western suburbs—supports the festival with its vendor booth, food demos, and launch of a brand new product!
